Information We Share With Third Parties: We share your personal information with our subsidiaries and affiliates; advertising partners, ad networks, marketing partners, and list rental services. Our advertising partners use and also share this information to tailor and deliver ads to you on our site and/or app, or to help tailor ads to you when you visit other sites and/or apps. For more details, please see our California Privacy Notice. Our subsidiaries and affiliates and other third party partners use and may also further share this information for their own purposes. For more details, please see our Privacy Notice. The California Consumer Privacy Act considers the sharing of some of this personal information to be a “sale”. Please see below to submit a request or call 1-800-552-7678.

Certain third parties with whom we share your personal information may resell or share it. You can opt-out of the re-sale or sharing of your personal information to the third parties listed here.

We and our service providers, such as Google Analytics, use analytics cookies to collect information about your use of the website to help create reports and statistics on the performance of the website, which enable us to improve the way the site works. Analytics cookies collect information such as your IP address, type of device, operating system, referring URLs, country information data and time of page visits, and pages visited. This information allows us to identify overall patterns of usage on the website, and help us record any difficulties you have with website.

NYP - Functionality Cookies and Similar Technologies

Always Active

Functionality cookies collect information regarding your choices and preferences (such as, your language preference, user name, or location) to provide a more personalized online experience and show you content relevant to where you are, such as customizing a certain webpage or remembering if we have asked you to sign up for our Services. With mobile or other internet enabled devices, functionality cookies may collect a unique identifier assigned to an internet enabled device (mobile, tablet), geolocation data or other traffic information for that device. These features help us improve your experience with the website, for example, to determine the appropriate device location during a session or count articles viewed.
